The Resurrection of the Lord

Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Bavo Parish are committed to be the living presence of Christ in the world today.

Empowered by the Spirit, we strive to live our shared commitment through liturgical celebrations, prayer, education, spiritual growth, bearing witness to faith and service to all.

Happy Easter! Today we begin our 50-day celebration of the Lord's Resurrection, from Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday. During this special season, the weekday readings present the entire story of the Early Church, as described in the Acts of the Apostles. On Monday and Tuesday of Easter Week, we hear what happened on the day of Pentecost, after the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles in the upper room. Peter immediately goes out, with his fellow Apostles, and proclaims the Risen Christ to all the people gathered outside. His message is so powerful that three thousand people convert and receive baptism that day. Next, Peter and John invoke the name of Jesus to cure a crippled man in the temple area. This miracle prompts many more conversions, swelling the number of the baptized to five thousand in just a matter of days! However, it also attracts the attention of the religious authorities, who threaten Peter and John and try to stop them from preaching about Jesus. They are not deterred in the slightest, but only emboldened to proclaim the Risen Lord all the more. As Peter declares, "It is impossible for us not to speak about what we have seen and heard."

From the second week of the Easter season until the day before Pentecost, the weekday gospels feature a continuous reading through virtually the entire Gospel of John. However, Easter Week itself consists of a compilation of resurrection appearances from all four gospels. We start with conflicting stories from Matthew and John about who saw Jesus first on Easter morning and how they responded to the sight of our Risen Lord. Then we have the famous Emmaus story from the Gospel of Luke, in two parts. First, Jesus accompanies two dejected disciples on their way from Jerusalem to Emmaus, explaining to them how all the events that have just transpired were foretold by the Scriptures. Then he reveals himself in the "breaking of the bread," only to disappear immediately from their sight. After they return excitedly to Jerusalem to tell the Eleven what happened, Jesus appears to all of them. Next, on Friday, we hear a highly symbolic story from the Gospel of John, in which Jesus appears at the Sea of Tiberias (a.k.a., the Sea of Galilee). This is the scene in which Jesus stands on the shoreline and calls out to the disciples, who are out on the lake, fishing. Though they had caught nothing all night, as soon as they cast their nets to the starboard side of the boat, at Jesus' suggestion, they suddenly pull in a huge catch of fish, symbolizing the work of evangelization that they will do in the Lord's name. Finally, on Saturday, we hear a brief reading from the Gospel of Mark, which summarizes some of the various traditions of resurrection appearances. In the end, we can't be sure of who saw Jesus when, but it's clear that many eyewitnesses came to believe by seeing him with their own eyes.
