Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Bavo Parish are committed to be the living presence of Christ in the world today.

Empowered by the Spirit, we strive to live our shared commitment through liturgical celebrations, prayer, education, spiritual growth, bearing witness to faith and service to all.

This week's liturgies feature many notable saints, including several martyrs, a revered Bishop and Doctor of the Church, and other holy men and women. However, for all Priests, Brothers and Sisters of the Congregation of Holy Cross, this week's star is Blessed Basil Moreau, the Founder of our community, whose feast day is Tuesday, January 20.

Fr. Moreau was a diocesan priest and a brilliant scholar, who was born in 1799 and grew up in the aftermath of the French Revolution. The Church of France had suffered greatly during the civil war. Nearly two-thirds of the clergy and the consecrated religious of the country had been killed or exiled. Though Fr. Moreau already had a full-time ministry as a seminary professor, teaching philosophy and theology to future priests of the Diocese of Le Mans, he also had a love for pastoral work and a deep concern for the people out in the towns and villages where there were few clergy left to shepherd them. So, Fr. Moreau gathered a group of Auxiliary Priests from his Diocese and organized them to preach and teach in the most neglected areas, to ensure that the message of Christ could be heard by all.

In 1835, Fr. Moreau's bishop invited him to take on another responsibility which fit perfectly with the work that his Auxiliary Priests were already doing. An older priest, Fr. Jacques Dujarié, had founded a community of religious brothers, called the Brothers of St. Joseph, whose mission was to teach in the parish schools. Fr. Moreau was happy to take over for the ailing Fr. Dujarié and oversee the work of the Brothers. Two years later, in 1837, he combined the Auxiliary Priests and the Brothers of St. Joseph into a new association, which he named after the town where they were based — Sainte Croix, or Holy Cross. Later, he also founded a community of Sisters, called the Marianites, who were likewise dedicated to education and evangelization, and he combined all three groups into one Congregation of Holy Cross. Moreau envisioned a religious family modeled after the Holy Family, with the priests consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the Brothers to the pure heart of St. Joseph, and the Sisters to the Immaculate and Sorrowful Heart of Mary. He also entrusted the entire community to the patronage of the Blessed Virgin Mary, under her title, "Our Lady of Sorrows."

The symbol and motto of Holy Cross were inspired by a passage from the Letter to the Hebrews, in which the author describes our hope for salvation as "an anchor of the soul, sure and firm, which reaches into the interior behind the veil, where Jesus has entered on our behalf." By his sacrifice on the cross, Jesus passed through the veil of death and firmly moored that anchor of hope on the other side. Hence, the symbol of Holy Cross is a cross with two anchors, and our motto is "Ave Crux Spes Unica" — Hail the Cross, our Only Hope.
